Henry Clay's Views upon Emancipation

Some of the secession papers are most sacrilegiously using the name of Henry Clay to sustain them in their negro doctrines. Will they be honest enough to publish his views upon the perpetuation of slavery, as he presented them in a speech before the National Colonization Society? Probably not. Mr Clay, in a speech before that Society in 1827, in Washington City, said

"What would they, who thus reproach us, have done? IF THEY WOULD REPRESS all tendencies towards liberty and ULTIMATE EMANCIPATION, they must do more than to put down the benevolent efforts of this Society. They must go back to the era of liberty and independence, and muzzle the cannon which thunders its annual joyous return; they must revive the slave trade, with all its train of atrocities, they must suppress the workings of British philanthropy, seeking to ameliorate the condition of the unfortunate West Indian slaves, they must arrest the career of South American deliverance from thraldom; they must blow out the moral lights around us, and extinguish that greatest torch of all which America presents to a benighted world, pointing the way to their rights, their liberties, and their happiness. And when they have achieved all their purposes, their work will yet be incomplete. They must penetrate the human soul, and eradicate the light of reason and the love of liberty. Then, and not till then, when universal darkness and despair prevail, can you perpetuate slavery."

There is Henry Clay—the holy patriot—whom the secesh of this day would press into their service!

Particulars of the Naval Engagement near Fort Wright.

CHICAGO, May 12—Cairo May 11.—The desperation of the rebel cause culminated yesterday, in an attack on our flotilla by the rebel fleet from Fort Wright. At six o'clock on Saturday morning the rebel ram Louisiana (Hollins') rounded the point, accompanied by four gunboats, and immediately opened fire on the gunboat Cincinnati, stationed in the advance. The rebel boats were held in check by the vigorous firing of the Cincinnati alone, until the Federal fleet came to her assistance. In the meantime the rebel ram, finding her guns ineffectual against the armor of the Cincinnati, approached her, with the evident intention to run her down. Capt Stempel, commanding the latter, prepared to meet her assault by putting his steam batteries in readiness for use. As the ram approached within close range of the Cincinnati she (the Cincinnati) turned her head about, leaving the ram to run alongside, when Capt Stempel drew his pistol and shot the pilot of the ram through the head. At this time the contest was intensely exciting, the crews of each boat being armed with cutlasses, carbines and boarding pikes, discharging volley after volley in quick succession.

Just then the steam battery of the Cincinnati opened with terrible effect, throwing a volume of steam and scalding water into the midst of the rebel crew, placing all who appeared on deck hors de combat, and instantly causing the craft to withdraw in haste. In the meantime, the rebel fleet had been reinforced by three other vessels, among them the new iron-clad steamer Mallory, lately built at Memphis. This vessel immediately engaged the Cincinnati and she withstood it nobly, the shot of the enemy glancing from her plating without causing the slightest damage, while her own guns were pouring shot and shell into the enemy with powerful effect.

During the engagement the Mallory approached the Cincinnati with the design of accomplishing what the ram failed to do. As she came in close proximity, the Federal gunboat St. Louis bore down upon her with a full head of steam, and struck her amidships, cutting her nearly in two, causing her to sink in a few minutes. While this work was progressing, the other boats of our fleet engaged the remainder of the enemy's fleet, and a most terrific battle raged. Report followed report in a continuous roar, and a dense volume of smoke covered the broad river for the time, completely enveloping both fleets. At this time a report louder than usual attracted general attention, and when the smoke lifted a little it was found that one of the enemy's boats was blown to atoms, and scarcely had the excitement ceased upon this event when a second like report was heard, and another of the rebel boats, with her crew, disappeared—both vessels having been blown up by the shells from our gunboats having fired their magazines. Under cover of the dense smoke the remainder of the rebel fleet retired at 20 minutes after 7—the fight lasting but little over an hour. The Cincinnati, which bore the brunt, was so little damaged that 24 hours will fit her for action. The St Louis, that ran down the Mallory, was but slightly injured, and is again ready for duty. No others of our boats were injured in the slightest degree. The loss of life on either side is not ascertained.

Full Details of News.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The bill establishing the Bureau of Agriculture passed the Senate to-day.

The bill organizing the Territory of Arizona, which passed the House instead of the Senate as telegraphed last night, repeals all laws, Congressional or Territorial, establishing and maintaining the relation of master and slave, and provides for the entire abolition of slavery therein, and in all Territories now organized.

Special dispatches to the New York papers: A dispatch from an officer at Williamsburg, states that a short time before reinforcements came up, our men gave way, being out of ammunition. We lost some guns which were recaptured.

Information from Fredericksburg says that the merchants there are largely indebted at the North, and are selling out their property with the avowed intention of defrauding their Northern creditors. Anonymous letters have been received by Union men at Fredericksburg, threatening their lives and property when our army leaves.

SEWARD'S MARKET, Va., May 8.—Yesterday the rebel pickets above the Columbia to the bridge on the east side of the Shenandoah were driven back by a detachment under Col Foster, who was assisted by the rebel regiments. The action lasted an hour. Foster withdrew in good order, and did not pursue. One company of Vermont cavalry was surrounded, but escaped by swimming the river. The enemy's loss was not ascertained. Foster captured six prisoners. It was reported here to-day that a skirmish occurred yesterday near Staunton between Milroy's advance and Edward Johnson's command. The latter were repulsed.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 8.—Shortly before noon to-day the Monitor, Naugatuck, Seminole Susquenannah, Dacotah and San Jacinto, in the order named, steamed towards Sewall's Point, and as soon as within range they opened fire with shot and shell against the battery. Most of the shots were good ones. It was nearly half an hour before a reply was made from the Point. The Sip Raps battery next opened fire, then the Naugatuck fired for the first time. Several shots were fired from the single gun on the extremity of the Point, when one from the Monitor struck in the vicinity, disabling the gun. The position of the Monitor was far in advance of the rest of the fleet. She continued in motion until within a mile or two of the point, when considerable execution must have been done by the accurate firing. The Naugatuck kept in the back ground, the range of her Parrott gun enabling her to do so. Sewall's Point battery replied briskly. The Sip Raps fired occasionally. A continual fire was kept up from the gunboats, but in consequence of the distance no details can be given. Nothing of note occurred until 2 o'clock, when the firing became very feeble from the Point. The Monitor about this time, retired from her position and joined the fleet, and at 15 minutes past two, a very heavy black smoke arose rapidly from the Point, caused probably by the burning of the rebel barracks and other buildings. About half past two the Merrimac made her appearance, when the fleet retired with the exception of the Monitor. The Merrimac at five o'clock was off the Point, and the Monitor ready to attack her. The Seminole has returned to the Lower Roads there being little prospect of a fight. At 9:30 P M, the Monitor retired, leaving the Merrimac in the same position.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 9.—The Virginia remained off Sewall's Point all last night. The Monitor fired up this morning and fired a few shots into the Point. The Sip Raps battery also opened a brisk fire, many shots striking in the woods on the Point.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., May 9.—The difficulty with the miners has been settled and the troops returned to Philadelphia to-day.

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—Gen Curtis reports from Batesville, Ark., that he had a skirmish with the enemy and took a number of prisoners, also 100 stand of arms. Batesville is on the White River, 100 miles West of the Mississippi river.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A telegram from Gen Marcy, of Gen McClellan's staff, says that the forces engaged at Williamsburg were 30,000 Federals and 50,000 rebels—Gen Joe Johnston led the latter in person. They have lost several of their best officers. Our men fought valiantly and used the bayonet freely.

The following account of Gen Hancock's bayonet charge is published in the Herald to-day. There was scarcely 100 yards between the rebels and our men when our skirmish fire ceased. The 5th Wisconsin and 43d New York formed in close order, at long range, muskets barred, came to level and one terrible volley tore through the rebel ranks, some long range guns came to second level and on order. Charge, bayonets, away went the two regiments, amidst loud cheers. Gallant as the foe were, they could not stand this and fled in a panic, generally estimated at three-quarters of a mile they advance under a fire splendidly served from the battery, with a cloud of skirmishers stretched across their front. The whole fire was very destructive. The rebels had not the nerve, broke, and fled in complete panic.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The War Department has received the following: Gen Franklin's and Gen Reynolds's division, numbering 20,000 men, landed at West Point. Gen ——'s division embarking for the same place, together with several batteries. The river, from Yorktown up, is lined with steamers and transports, and no doubt is entertained but we will intercept and cut off the rebels, unless they escape across the James river.

A boat from Pittsburg Landing arrived at Cairo on the 8th and reported our army within two miles of Corinth.

CHICAGO, May 8—P M.—The Memphis Unionist of the 5th inst., contains the following from Vicksburg: We learn that the authorities are rapidly strengthening the fortifications there, which are reported to be of such formidable character as to preclude the possibility of the enemy's fleet coming up the river.

The same paper acknowledges the loss of 20 killed and 100 wounded, at Farmington, last Saturday, and deprecates the adoption of the system of persecuting Union men. It says such action is calculated to lead to disastrous results.

A gentleman who left New Orleans on the 1st inst., charges the men in Forts St Philip and Jackson with receiving bribes from the federals, and were thus induced to spike the guns and surrender. The commander of the French frigate Milaitor (?) on the surrender of the city gave notice that he required six days notice before the bombardment of the city, in order to remove French citizens. The cotton at New Orleans and Baton Rouge, amounting to 12,000 bales, had been destroyed.

Jeff Davis has issued a proclamation requesting the people to assemble at their places of worship, on the 11th May, to ask the blessing of God on the Confederate arms.

A dispatch from Augusta, Ga., May 3d, states that paroners who have escaped from Key West, report 5,000 Federals in the hospitals with the small pox.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The steamer Oriental, from Port Royal 6th May, has arrived.

The pirate steamer Nashville has got into Wilmington. The sailing sloop of war Jamestown was the only blockading ship there and the guns sighted on it.

The Ocean Queen has arrived from Yorktown with 1,000 sick and wounded.

Capt Boggs the commander of the Leroud, in his official report of the fight with the rebel ram Morgan at New Orleans says that over fifty of their crew were wounded and she was set on fire by her own gunner, who joined his wounded with the vessel.

NEW YORK (New Providence) papers of 26th April's publication have arrived. The citizens there were preparing to celebrate the 4th of July in an exceptionally exciting manner. Business was almost entirely suspended. Fort Hamilton and Moultrie were being furnished with heavy guns. Five schooners loaded with turpentine and lumber for Nassau, having run the blockade. The Charleston steamship with arms had arrived from Liverpool.

The schooner Meteor from Fort Pickens 24th April has arrived. The rebels still hold possession of Pensacola, having a force of 11,000 men. Gen Arnold was awaiting reinforcements before recommencing an attack.

A refugee from Memphis reports that a large number of troops had arrived there from Arkansas and Texas, and were immediately sent to Corinth. The Provost Marshal of Memphis commenced burning cotton last week. The sugar and molasses has been rolled into the river. The rebel government has seized considerable property, promising to pay within three months after peace with the United States. Jeff Thompson was securing the country about Memphis enforcing the conscription act.

Deserters from Beauregard's army, report the troops to be on half rations. Their provision will not last more than 10 days.

Intelligence from Paducah states that a conspiracy has been discovered on the part of the secession residents to hand over the town to the rebels. The Federal force there has been greatly increased, and the guns in the earthworks were turned upon the town, to be used in case of an outbreak.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—The Ironsides, a similar boat to the Monitor, was successfully launched to-day.

CHICAGO, May 10.—News has been received from Batesville, Arkansas, to the 6th. The Union feeling there was very strong since the arrival of Gen Curtis's army. Men from the surrounding towns were daily coming in and taking the oath of allegiance. The day the army arrived, thirty men came a distance of thirty five miles for that purpose.

It is the opinion of military men that the rebels have made their last stand in Virginia.

PITTMAN FERRY, Arkansas, May 8th.—Fifteen transports are now at Little Rock, taking in 12,000 troops for Corinth.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 9th.—The Yorktown steamer brings information of Gen McClellan having advanced twelve miles beyond Williamsburg. He had several skirmishes with the enemy routing them with heavy loss.

The embarkation of troops for West Point is progressing with great rapidity.

A heavy battle took place there on Wednesday afternoon, May 7th, between Gen Sedgwick's and Franklin's Divisions and the rebels under Gen Lee who were endeavoring to make their way to Richmond. It is said to have been the severest battle on the peninsula. The rebels were totally defeated and driven towards the Chickahominy. The whole number of federals killed and wounded was 300. The rebels had not less than thirty thousand men engaged, the whole federal force is said to have not exceeded 12,000. The latter would probably have been defeated had it not been for the gun boats arriving opportunely and driving the enemy back with great slaughter.

The deserters report a great excitement at Norfolk.

This morning it is said that Gen Burnside, with a large force, is within a few miles of Weldon. The rebels are leaving.

Sewall's and Pig's Point batteries have been abandoned.

Preparations are being made for the destruction of the Navy Yard at Norfolk and other public property.

During the naval action yesterday, the flag staff at Sewall's Point was shot away twice. Of a large number of shots fired by the enemy, not one took effect on the Federals.

WASHINGTON, May 9th.—A bearer of dispatches from Commodore Farragut at New Orleans has arrived with dates to the 29th of April. At that time the Commodore was taking every means to secure the occupation of the Forts along the coast by Gen Butler's forces.

A bill to educate the black children in the District of Columbia, and to abolish the black code, has passed the Senate by a vote of 28 to 7.

Mr. Adams U S Minister at the Court of St James, has made a demand upon the English Government for a return of all British ships which have eluded the blockade.

The ship Emile St Pierre, captured whilst attempting to run the blockade, was afterwards recaptured by her crew while on her way to Philadelphia, and taken to Liverpool.

MONTEREY, Tenn., May 9th.—A reconnoisance to within a mile of the enemy's entrenchments has fully established the fact that the rebels there are in force, and furthermore, they intended to fight inside their entrenchments. The weather is good and the roads improving.

Refugees, who left Memphis on the 4th of May, report the rebel troops gradually evacuating Fort Wright and going to Corinth. Beauregard was gathering together all the forces he could for the impending battle.

A letter from Burnsville, Texas, to the Memphis Appeal, says that Velasco has imposed a duty of 12 cents on every pound of cotton shipped into Mexico and a duty of 25 per cent on all goods from Mexico into Texas.

WASHINGTON, May 10th.—The House, yesterday adopted a resolution tendering Gen McClellan their thanks for the display of those high military qualities which secure important results with but little loss of human life.

Special dispatches to the New York papers state that the Senate Committee on the Pacific Railroad bill agreed, yesterday, to report the House bill, without amendments, and urge its passage. The bill seems to be generally acceptable.

Memphis papers of the 5th May make no mention of the occupation of Baton Rouge by the Federals, but say the place is being fortified and prepared to give the Federals a warm reception.

CAIRO, May 10th.—Arrivals from Pittsburg Landing, say that Gen Grant in force attacked the rebels on Wednesday, the 7th of May, a few miles west of Corinth, and forced their lines. They consequently retreated, though in perfect order. The result of the engagement was, that the rebels surrendered the line of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, taking a position in force on the Mobile and Ohio railroad south of Corinth.

This movement, with reports of deserters, indicates that the rebel forces are being withdrawn as rapidly as possible to Columbus, Miss., 95 miles south of Corinth. At Columbus the rebels have extensive works for the manufacture of arms and ammunition stores.

CHICAGO, May 12th.—Norfolk, Portsmouth and the Navy Yard are ours. The Merrimac was blown up by the rebels.

A naval engagement lasting an hour and a half, took place at Fort Wright on Saturday. One rebel boat was sunk and two were blown up. Only two of our boats were engaged.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 10th.—Norfolk is ours, also Portsmouth and the Navy Yard. Gen. Wool, with a force of 5,000 men, proceeded to Willoughby Point on Friday night and effected a landing. This morning he commenced the march to Norfolk, five miles from the landing. A rebel battery was stationed on the opposite side of Tanner's Creek. After a few shots the rebels retreated after burning the bridge, which compelled a march round of five miles further. At o'clock in the afternoon, when within a short distance of the city of Norfolk, our troops were met by citizens of Norfolk, who formally surrendered the city. Our troops marched in and now hold possession. Gen Viele commands as Military Governor. Neither city nor Navy Yard was burned. Gen Huger, commanding the rebel forces, withdrew without a fight.

CAIRO, May 11th.—News from Pittsburg Landing reach to Saturday noon. A reconnoisance by four companies of Illinois cavalry fell into a rebel ambuscade on Thursday, but cut their way through losing the Major killed, and four wounded. A deserter since arrived says, the rebel loss is thirty killed and wounded.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 10.—Deserters from a Louisiana regiment in the fight of Friday, just arrived state that the rebel force making the attack on their left wing on Friday night was 16,000 strong with 20 pieces of artillery under Bragg. Polk had charge of the right and Price the centre. They also state that the left wing fell into the river. Their loss of Brigadiers and men was very heavy. Ours so far as ascertained was 91 killed and 70 wounded. All was quiet on the 9th.

TROY, N Y., May 11.—A fire yesterday destroyed between 500 and 600 buildings and laid waste fifty acres of ground in the 2d, 3d and 4th wards. Most of the buildings burned were private stables and among the best in the city. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000. Insurance, $1,400,000. The business part of the city suffered from the flames, which in the evening were driven by a strong wind. Among the buildings burned are Rand & Rogers' Daguerreotype establishment, Dunlap and Marchant's printing establishment, Lyon's foundry, Bessemer Rail and Bridge Co.'s machine shop and Hall's stove foundry. During the progress of the fire the wind carried burning brands to various parts of the city, setting fire to numbers of places.

NO NOMINATIONS.—The democratic convention, which met at the Court house on Saturday, failed to make nominations for county officers. They adjourned to meet again at the option of the President. That next meeting is not likely to be held—secesh won't win in these parts.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple formation of tar, will quickly and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, its use should at once be had to. Sold by Druggists and Storekeepers. Let no one let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them invaluable for clearing and strengthening the voice. Sound testimonial.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger CIRCULATION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, opposite the Post Office

PUBLIC SPEAKING ON SATURDAY.—On Saturday last the theatre in this city was crowded with our citizens to hear the speeches of the opposing candidates for Governor. Mr. ——, the Union candidate, opened with a powerful and logical argument in regard to the causes of the present unhappy state of the country, and the duty of every American citizen to support the Administration in putting down the rebellion. He was followed by the Democratic candidate, Gen John F Miller, who made his entire argument upon the doctrine of non-intervention as expounded by Mr. ——; but the arguments Mr. Miller used in the last campaign do not exactly accord with his late profession of non intervention. He is a plain, uneducated farmer, and would make very near as good a Governor as Governor Whitteaker. He said that he was a farmer; but this the audience did not seem to observe.

In the evening the house was filled again to hear Judge William's speech in favor of the Union candidates. It was the most convincing argument we ever heard to induce our citizens to stand by the Union in this hour of peril.

At the conclusion of Judge Williams' speech, three cheers was called for, who appeared and responded. It was too late in the evening to make a speech, but he would reply to Judge Williams sometime during the coming week.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Among the passengers by the steamer Oregon came two celebrated individuals, both well known to the citizens of Oregon—Skookum John and his wife. Chiefs of the Rogue River tribe of Indians. It will be remembered that John was the murderer of the whites during the Rogue River war, and after his capture he tried to incite a revolt among his warriors at the Table Rock Reservation in 1858—for which he and others were arrested and put on board the steamer Columbia, bound for San Francisco. During the passage down John and his son made a private attempt to take the vessel, but not succeeded, they assaulted the officers, but were finally overpowered, and ironed. During the fight, Adam had his legs cut off by a cleaver, in the hands of one of the crew. Since that time they have been held as prisoners of war at Fort Alcatraz, San Francisco; but in consideration of their good behavior during their confinement, and the petitions of Adam's daughter, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs, has now been permitted to return to their people. They express themselves perfectly satisfied with the power of the "Boston man," and are willing to live in peace with them hereafter.

—A couple of deserters from the Fort Dalles army were arrested on Saturday in Portland, and marched through the streets of the city to the steamer Vancouver, which conveyed them to their quarters at Fort Vancouver.

—Hodge & Calef have removed to the store three doors above their old stand, the building occupied by the Oregonian.

—We are informed that sailing vessels from San Francisco to this port, have risen a dollar per ton of freight.

—The steamer Oregon is advertised to leave this evening at six o'clock.

—The steamer Oregon has on board a number of beef cattle, sheep and hogs for Victoria.

—GAMER.—The steamer Sierra Nevada will sail from San Francisco for this port to-day last.

—WALLAWALLE.—A recent letter from there says: "We have a large army here at present, numbering something like a hundred thousand men." A gentleman said to me a few days ago, "Why, if I had told him, three months ago, that we would have a Federal army here, he would have told him he was crazy. Why, a lady told me, a few days ago, that the sight of the Northern army coming in was truly appalling to her.—She told that those 'Yankees would tear her child from her arms and cut off its head before her eyes, and burn and destroy her property they could see."

Information of James B. Hughes Wanted.

JAMES B HUGHES is supposed to have been a resident of Portland, Oregon. For about ten years past his friends in Michigan have not heard from him. A short time since it was understood by his friends in Michigan that he had died some time about the date of March 1861 and that he left a large amount of property. The person he was a short and thick-set man, of dark complexion, sharp-featured, and by occupation a lumber dealer and contractor in merchant, owning extensive lumber and flouring mills.—His present age, if he were living, would be about forty years. He went to California in 1848. His former residence was Chicago Ill. It is supposed that he left a wife and two children, but that they are alive is not used.

Should any citizen of Oregon or Washington Territory, or California, possess any knowledge of this James B Hughes and will communicate the same to the editor of this paper or the undersigned, a great favor will be conferred, which will be duly acknowledged.

Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of

KEROSENE OIL,

Which we warrant in every particular to be

Superior to any other Oil

yet introduced in San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested and will fill the place of Coal Oil Burners, and is found to produce

More Light and Burn Longer;

Is cheaper than any other oil in use.

Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL we offer the first that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE. It can safely be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second It is free from all offensive smells and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially solicit the public and families to use this Oil in full confident that once used we feel confident it will always be ever after used in preference to any other Oil for economy as well as enjoyment of burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed the brand on each can and case which will be known as

DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.

It is now offered for sale by dealers and retail at

"Nameless Dead"

("After the last day's fighting at Ft Nelson, the spectacle was truly appalling—a heap of nameless dead &c.—Our Eastern Paper

O nameless dead! Other eyes
Will weep in your country's call
Have left your homes and loved ones
To fight that last battle all.
And gave your lives to battle
Away like wasted things
Oh, who shall write your requiem,
Or sing your requiem songs

Full well have all brave hearts
Your songs for love and song,
And well our souls do love the name
The phalanx—Unknown.—
True from the Chat of glory
No worthy deed can name
But give the nameless heroes
Their honest meed of fame!

Their deeds were just as brave, at,
Their lives were just as dear,
Their hands were just as willing,
Their hearts as free from fear!
And, what is more than all this
Though neither sword nor gun
Had carved their names in story,
They too were fellow men!

In hearts of toil-worn women
Actor with a less sharp pain,
When from the list of battle
They hear that one is slain
In whom they fondly trusted,
Thus theirs to whom the news
Comes with a nation's praise
Which love cannot refuse!

Old country of our fathers,
The humblest man who goes
To fight thy saving battles,
Against thy warring foes,
May stop a rebel's bullet
And thus thy weal increase—
Green be the sward above him,
And may he rest in peace

Oh, patriot men and women
Who could not go to fight,
Who are denied the glory
Of dying on the right
Let not one humble mourner
Wait for your sighs and love—
And God His consolations
Rain on them from above

O nameless dead! oh heroes!
No song can tell your praise,
And none to your remembrance
A monument shall raise,
Unless the forests sleeping
And by the sounding main
Let those your memory keeping
Eternally complain!

FORT UMPQUA, OREGON.

Good as Wheat—Or "Seven Up" for a Wife.

In the State of Tennessee, there is a certain village, boasting of its tavern, three stores, and four groceries, where, from morning till night, and from night till dawn, a person entering the town may find, in the tavern, the stores, or groceries aforesaid, one or more groups of persons playing cards. Gambling there is reduced to a science—the history of four kings is thoroughly studied, and from the schoolboy to the grey-headed veteran, from the miss in her teens to the mother of a large family, they are initiated into the mysteries of high, low, jack, the honors and the odd trick. One of the best players was Major Smith, the tavern keeper, or, as he expressed it, the proprietor of the hotel; a widower, who, like

Jephtha, Judge in Israel,
Had a daughter passing fair

Fanny, the daughter, was one of the prettiest girls in Tennessee, and therefore one of the prettiest in the world. The sweetheart of Miss Fanny was a young farmer, residing in the neighborhood, whom we shall designate by the name of Bob.

It happened that one day before harvest, the young man was detained in the village, and found, as usual, at the hotel, seated between the Major and his charming daughter. After a desultory conversation between the two gentlemen, on the state of the weather, the prospects of the approaching harvest, and such important staples of conversation, the Major asked Robert how his wheat crop promised to yield. In reply, he was told that the young farmer expected to make at least one hundred bushels.

The Major appeared to study for a moment, then abruptly proposed a game of old sledge, or "seven up," the stakes to be his daughter Fanny against the crop of wheat. This, of course, the young man indignantly refused, because he could not bear the idea that the hand of her he loved should be made the subject of a bet, or that he should win a wife by gambling for her, and perhaps, because he knew the old man was "hard to beat," and there was a strong probability of his losing both wheat and wife.

It was not until the Major, with his usual obstinancy had sworn that unless he won her he should never have her, that the young man was forced reluctantly to consent to play.

The table was placed, the candles lit, the cards produced, and the players, took their seats, with Miss Fanny between them to watch the progress of the game. The cards were regularly shuffled and cut, and it fell to the Major's lot to deal. The first hand was played, and Robert made gift to his opponent's high low game. Robert then dealt, the Major begged, it was given, and the Major again made three to his opponent's one.

"Six to two, said Miss Fanny, with a sigh. The Major, as he dealt the cards, winked knowingly and said—

"I am good for the wheat, Master Bob."

The old man turned up a trump, it was a spade. Fanny glanced at her father's hand—her heart sunk; he held the tray and eight spots and the king! She then looked at Robert's hand, and lo! he held the ace, queen, deuce, and jack. She whispered to Robert to beg—he did so.

"Take it," said the Major

"Three to six," said Miss Fanny, aloud.

Robert led his deuce, which the Major took with his three spot, and followed by playing the king; Robert put his queen on it. The Major, supposing it was the young man's last trump, leaned over the table and tapping the last trick with his finger, said

"That's good as wheat"

"Is it?" asked Robert, as he displayed to the eyes of the astonished Major the ace and jack yet in his hand

"High, low, jack, gift, and the game" shouted Robert

"O ho!" sententiously ejaculated Miss Fanny.

"Good as wheat," added Robert, flinging his arms around her neck and kissing her

In due time they were married, and ever after that, when anything occurred of a pleasant nature to the happy couple, they would express their gratulation pro bonation of it, by the old phrase—"good as wheat"

The Senate Military Committee have reported in favor of the confirmation of Captain Grover as Brigadier-General. He is a brother of Hon L F Grover of Oregon ☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco

Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's Laws

To the Afflicted

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a deranged state of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—in fact all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor or nauseous vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or baneful drugs. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have received from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which I warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected in a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. Instead, the disease and the treatment do not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and a current of life corrupted by a virus which horrified at an early date, letter, ulcerated eruptions and other symptoms of the disease, appear on the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health for nothing can be the dread destroyer of human life so certain to deal its fatal blow upon the system—drawing its victims and of victims through years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly, wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system incapacitates for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and without the detriment of nauseous practices, by patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and unattended by the nauseous drugging so remarkable in Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients summarizing their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute Sacramento street, below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail S.S. Company's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the gangs of disease, who having received their former health, and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agents and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. We demands for its impertinent command their publicity and we comply and their perusal to the attention of all afflicted

Certificate—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunately enough to be similarly afflicted, where supernatural relief of their sufferings may be obtained feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most grateful gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the certainty of recovery of his health I had been deeply by the distressful symptoms incident to the solitary practices of an intellectual person in youth deprived in body and mind until life itself even the most terrifying duty imposed upon other avocations of life; I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first required no less than a trifling important—but alas! after a few weeks of in several instances running of their pockets I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their certainty as having told by one that my disease being partially confined to the brain medicine would be of little consequence I despaired I never regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort tried with but a faint hope that Dr. Czapkay who after examining my case prescribed such medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result I continued to take myself immediately under his care and by strict obedience to all his directions and advice soon had the same changed and my ideas restored the constant pain in my back and gained the weakness of my limbs the nervous sensation of my whole body to the slightest alarm trepidation, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the indecision and want of confidence in others the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and numerous unpleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of the impudent quacks, I deem it my duty after this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and refer him to all who may stand in need of medical advice being assured by my own experience, that one under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, June 2d, 1866.

DR L J CZAPKAY, San Francisco—SIR: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I put the constitution with my constitution, as I thought, honestly and entirely, and never thought you would be able to give me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do so to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and fret at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms and the removal of those sores and [illegible] on my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the disagreeable passage of those emissions, which you said were probably the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest my joy or my surprise, for except not having left, I got my strength. I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the paper. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to grow

CERTIFICATE—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart I wish to lay before the public a case which I consider a recommendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the disagreement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of the physician I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon them as would render assistance or shelter me from the [illegible] ridicules who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, still having, previous to my [illegible] quainted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation upon Dr L J Czapkay I told him of my ills, and my inability to reward him for his services of which however, he at once undertook my case, relying the Lord of God I was once more restored to perfect health Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it my duty myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed
